GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today's gospel reading leads us into a section of Mark's gospel that explores challenges confronting all disciples on their journey of faith. The first challenge is to clarify the nature of our commitment as disciples of Jesus. If we fail to understand who Jesus is, then we have little chance of understanding the nature of our own call to follow him. Two questions ("Who do people say that I am?" and "Who do you say that I am?") are addressed to our forbears in faith communities of the latter part of the first century and to Christians across the millennia. We are invited to hear these questions anew. Do we simply share what "the people" say about Jesus? Are we like Peter who has the right language but only partial insight? Or do we have the wisdom to seek a deeper understanding of the identity of Jesus?

In response to Jesus' second question ("Who do you say that I am?"), Peter gets the words right: Jesus is the messiah, the Christ, God's anointed messenger. It becomes clear, however, that Peter has a very different notion from Jesus of what it means to be the messiah or the Christ. This is understandable since there were diverse messianic expectations within first-century Judaism. Many expected a royal militaristic figure who would drive out the Roman occupiers and restore Israel's status as an independent nation. Jesus, as God's messiah, refuses the way of violent action. His way is to be true to his mission of bringing God's empire, even if it brings the most intense personal suffering. Peter refuses to accept a suffering Messiah. He is severely reprimanded for his refusal and instructed to get out of the way, to get back to where a disciple should be, namely behind Jesus, following him, and not in front obstructing the path.

The bitter experience in recent years of global conflicts should make us wary of accepting militaristic messiahs. In our times, to know and follow Jesus as the Christos or Messiah is to seek and support more moderate and lasting responses to perceived injustice. It is to listen to the wisdom of those with insight and experience, to calculate with the utmost care the consequences of violent reactions to the problems in our world, in contemporary society, and in our homes. That may well involve hard work, personal misunderstanding, physical and emotional trauma or, in other words, it may mean "losing one's life" for the sake of the gospel. It certainly calls for profound trust in the saving power of God. Over the next few weeks, the Sunday gospels will call us into the ways of respect, of commitment, and of peaceful negotiation, to ever deeper insight into the ways of the anointed agent of God's empire.

COMMUNITY LIFE & OUTREACH

CHILD PROTECTION SUNDAY-13TH SEPTEMBER

In the context of Child Protection Sunday we are provided with an opportunity to reflect on the worlds of Pope Francis who in a letter wrote on 2 February 2015 to the Presidents of the Episcopal Conferences and Superiors of Religious Institutes he stated that "Families need to know that the Church is making every effort to protect their children. They should also know that they have every right to turn to the Church with full confidence, for it is a safe and secure home."

What part do we play in this 'shared responsibility' of working to ensure the Church is a safe and secure community? In the Australian context through Child Protection Week and in particular this Sunday we are asked to be someone who listens to children, someone who will start a conversation with children and if needed, be that someone whom children will turn to when in need.

NEW FROM OUR PARISH SCHOOLS

Dear Sacred Heart families and friends

I hope all dads had a wonderful day last Sunday and they were rightly acknowledged and suitably celebrated... Congratulations to the SHPS community on another highly successful WES & Fete. The final profit is not known at this point as accounts are still being finalised, however, we look at making a profit in excess of last year's, which is an outstanding effort. The success was the result of much hard work by families, students and staff, superbly led and coordinated by Mary Avery. Thank you Mary on an amazing performance. Extra thanks are passed onto the parents and family members who took on the 'Stall Coordinator' roles. Also, a huge thank you to the many businesses who supported our WES & Fete through sponsorship, donations etc. The WES & Fete is a lot of hard work not only on the day, but also in organisation before and after, the setting up and packing up etc. Many people commented on how efficiently the day ran. It requires a team effort by part of SHPS community, under the direction of Captain Mary... We look forward to our 41st in 2016!!! - Des Lowry—Principal

ST PAULS PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear St Paul's families and friends

Thank you for the children, families and staff that were involved in Saturday nights' Fathers' Day Mass. It was lovely to see so many involved celebrating with our parish community. Thank you to Miss Fuoco and Mrs Kennedy for organising the Mass.

The Parents and Friends committee met to finalise the details for this year's "Big Night Out" Cinema evening. This year it will be hosted on Friday 23rd October. There will be a major raffle associated with it this year with some fantastic prizes on offer as well. Tickets will go on sale shortly.

AN APOLOGY

Because of an editorial oversight, I apologize for what appeared in last week's Bulletin under the heading "Launch of Mildura Hospital Conversation". Those of us associated with the Hospital on a pastoral basis have enjoyed extremely positive and beneficial relationships with Staff and Management. The inference that any members of present staff are inadequate due to their ethnicity or residential status is considered extremely objectionable by our Parish Community. The conversation during our recent Social Justice Committee meeting was around external, not internal management.

NEWS FROM ST JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

Mercy Mass next Wednesday 16th September

As a part of the Mercy Week Celebrations that will take place next week, the College will celebrate the whole school Mercy Mass at the Sacred Heart Church in the morning. This mass will be dedicated to our Mercy heritage and we will give thanks to the many Sisters of Mercy who have dedicated their lives to serving the needs of others.

College Ball this Friday

This Friday evening, the College will celebrate its 57th Annual College Ball in the St Joseph's College Stadium. The night will provide the opportunity for students in years 9 to 12 (and some staff!) to get dressed up and to socialise and dance.

I thank all students in anticipation for the efforts they will go to formally dress up for this special occasion.

Also, many thanks to Mr Paolucci for organising the event and for all other staff will set up, supervise and clean up on the night. God Bless,

Anthony Banks— Principal

ONLINE DIOCESAN TRAINING COURSE ABOUT SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

If you have a particular role in the parish, you may be contacted about providing your email address for the purpose of completing an online training course to be distributed by the Diocesan Professional Standards office. The training relates to two diocesan documents: "Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults" and "Code of Conduct for Caring for Children". The training aims to ensure that all those who work with children and persons in positions of responsibility in our parishes have read and understand the documents.

Our Parish Vision
"Our Parish is a Eucharistic Community united by our faith in Jesus Christ.
