Mass Online

In addition to the Masses we have been advertising here in recent months, you may be interested to know that by googling Mass Online you can find Masses in English and other languages from all over the world.

Mass can be seen online every day at the following sites:

St Joseph's Warrnambool

Novel coronavirus (COVID-19)

Stage 3 restrictions were re-introduced in regional Victoria from last Wednesday. All updates are on the diocesan website "news" section at www.ballarat.catholic.org.au. It remains the case that we shall be unable to take part in the Mass in our churches, though Mass can still be watched online on Pay TV Channel 173, and on Sundays at 6 a.m. on free TV Channel 8.

New Diocesan Website

Members of the Diocesan Pastoral Ministry Office are working on developing a new website for the diocese, as the operating system on the current website will no longer be supported by the end of this year. Training and support will be provided to parish page administrators and others who access the website. Launch dates and other information will be provided to our parish as soon as it is available.

A Message From Mercy Place

We are advised that when we are once again able to celebrate Thursday morning Masses at Mercy Place both the celebrant and visiting members of the congregation must have provided evidence that they have been vaccinated against influenza this year.

Did You Know?

Father Michael has been writing weekly homilies, even though no one is in the church to hear them. They are still being published on the parish website: Warrnambool West and Dennington at www.ballarat.catholic.org.au

The men in the boat bowed down before
him and said, "Truly,
you are the Son of God."
