First Sunday of Advent

Advent has a two-fold purpose:

- to prepare for Christmas when Christ's birth is remembered
- to await Christ's second coming at the end of time.

Envelopes are available where your donation will be shared with St Vincent de Paul and victims of the recent bush fires. Envelopes can be placed on the collection plate.

Plenary Council: St Joseph's Parish is conducting another 'Listening & Discernment Experience' this Tuesday in the Parish Hall at 7.30pm. The theme is Missionary and Evangelising. If you are interested and wish to contribute, please come along. A snapshot report is available in the Gathering Space or from the Parish Office.

Parish News: As many of you will have noticed the Gathering Space has had a face-lift: painting, carpet, kitchen cupboards etc. Special thanks to Mareta & Kevin Butler on their creative expertise in revitalising Mary MacKillop area.

Moving Forward: Thank you to the workers and participants involved last weekend. Donations have been forwarded for drought and fire relief victims.

Caritas Australia: This Christmas buy a 'Global Gift'. The Gift of Water, the Gift of Food, the Gift of Sustainable Livelihoods, to help the most vulnerable people in the world transform their lives. Further information in Gathering Space or Office.

Tertiary Chaplain: Following 7 years of chaplaincy at Deakin University & SWTAFE Don Stewart has now resigned. He was supported in this ministry by St Joseph's Parish and Warrnambool Uniting & Anglican Churches. He expresses gratitude to all who supported him. We thank Don for his ministry over these years and wish him well in his future.
