GOSPEL REFLECTION

Gary Cohen's film, Judah & Mohammad, depicts the separate lives and education of two teenage school boys, one a Jewish Israeli and the other a Palestinian Arab. Judah and Mohammad have never met and are unlikely ever to do so. Geographically they are near neighbours, but their lives are separated by a "security wall" that keeps them and their people effectively separated and suspicious of each other, despite the desire for peace of many on both sides of the wall. Sandy Tolan's heart-wrenching novel, The Lemon Tree, tells a similar story of women on either side of the divide. Both stories reflect a contemporary story of violent conflict and hostility. That is more or less how it was between Jews and Samaritans in the first century, although the hostility in that instance had endured for centuries.

A gracious welcome for Jesus and his friends could hardly have been expected in that climate, although it seems they would have been welcomed had Jesus planned to stay and worship in the temple on Mt. Gerizim, the centre of Samaritan life and worship. The problem for the Samaritans is his decision to use Samaritan territory simply as a staging post on his journey to Jerusalem, the centre of Jewish life and worship. The Samaritans "did not receive him because his face was set towards Jerusalem".

The Galilean Jewish disciples James and John have an excessively violent reaction to the unwelcoming Samaritans: "Do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" The force of this question can easily be lost. James and John have heard Jesus telling them to love their enemies, to do good to those who hate them, bless those who curse them, and pray for those who mistreat them (6:28-28). And yet they want to call down fire on those who do not receive him. Jesus makes it clear that violence is not the way of God's prophet, even in the face of rejection. He has no word of condemnation for the villagers who failed to receive him but simply moves on to another village. The text simply says that he turns and rebukes his two disciples.

There is a sense of relentlessness in this gospel passage. Jesus has "set his face to Jerusalem" and there is no turning back for him or for those who join him on the journey. Jesus, in the company of his disciples, now moves inexorably to Jerusalem where he will be "lifted up" in death and exaltation. Bringing the good news of God's kingdom is the purpose of the journey. We are invited to enter into that journey with all its demands and deprivations. There is no room on this journey, it seems, for clinging to familiar securities.

BAPTISM

We welcome into our Parish Community, Joseph Cua, Alexis Bowden, Cooper Marr & Gabriel Musolino whose Baptism occurs this weekend.

FIRST EUCHARIST 2016

Congratulations to Rafael Garreffa who will receive the Eucharist for the first time this weekend. Also to Rafael's parents and family who have accompanied him throughout his preparation for this Sacrament. As we know, the Eucharist is not a "one off sacrament". The invitation of Jesus is to be present each Sunday as the Community gathers to celebrate and His ongoing presence amongst us, and to be continually nourished with His life through our communion with Him in the Eucharist.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Two Eucharistic ministers are needed for Saturday 6pm Mass on a rostered basis. New Eucharistic Ministers are most welcome and training will be provided. Please contact the Parish Office on 5021 2872 during Office hours.

The Parish is in need of volunteers who can help out in the following areas:

- Baptism Preparation—4th Wednesday of each month—on a rostered basis.
- Baptism Sponsors—2nd & 4th weekend of each month—on a rostered basis.

Volunteering strengthens our Parish Community and helps lessen the workload on those who are currently helping out. It is a rewarding and engaging experience Training WILL be provided. Please contact the Parish Office on 5021 2872 for further information.

Many of our senior parishioners complain about how cold the church is especially on a Sunday morning. During the months of July and August the Monaghan Centre will be available with chairs, T.V screen and heating. We would be grateful if volunteers were available to set up the Monaghan Centre before Mass, and make sure it is returned to normal after each 9am Mass.

NATSICC produces a resource kit every year to assist parishes, schools and other organisations to celebrate the day. Visit the NATSICC website.

LAUDATO SI – FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Catholic Earthcare 2016 Laudato Si' 'Tree of Life' resource launched for parishes, schools and Catholic organisations: This resource has been launched on World Environment Day to encourage the community to celebrate the first anniversary of the papal encyclical Laudato Si' by coming together to experience dialogue and stimulate action on caring for our common home. Catholics are being invited to write down their actions about caring for creation and bring them together in the form of a new 'Tree of Life' resource. This is a wonderful opportunity to share the message of the Pope's encyclical, Laudato Si' and to enable dialogue and action within local Catholic communities. ## SOCIAL JUSTICE

CAPSA Social Justice: "Standing in Solidarity – National Day of Prayer & Action"

The Catholic Alliance for People Seeking Asylum (CAPSA) is an advocacy project of Jesuit Social Services to change hearts and minds in the Catholic community towards a more just and compassionate welcome of people seeking protection. It aims to work with schools, parishes, Catholic organisations, health providers, etc., to build capacity for advocacy and collaboration on this issue. This September 4-10, CAPSA is encouraging schools across the country to take part in a National Day of Prayer and Action to stand in solidarity with the many thousands of people facing the harsh conditions of Australia's immigration policies. Please see flyers on noticeboards.

you will be in no danger of

NEWS FROM ST JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

It has been a busy week at the College with Years 9, 10 and 11 students undertaking their mid semester exams and Years 7 and 8 students continuing with their learning in class. Year 8 students will conclude the week with NAI-DOC activities arranged at the Mercy Campus on Friday. Year 12 students departed last Monday morning for the annual Religious Education Retreat to Anglesea. The week focused on personal and spiritual growth of the individual, particularly important at this pivotal time in their lives. Students take part in many varied activities which include surfing, hiking, workshops on faith, "Who is our God?", their journey and family as well as bonding with their environment and one another. The week culminates with a Liturgy celebrated with Fr Damian on Thursday night before returning to Mildura on Friday.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our students, families and the community a relaxing and safe break. We look forward to welcoming you on your return to the College, refreshed and ready for the new term.

God Bless

Marg Blythman, Principal

NEWS FROM OUR PRIMARY SCHOOL

SACRED HEART PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear School Families and Friends,

It has been a long term, however it has seemed to go very quickly! A huge thank you to all the students and staff for their brilliant efforts this term and the wonderful support of families and friend's. The learning is most evident in the students and staff alike. Make sure you have as much R&R as possible during the break.

Fr Michael flew out earlier in the week for his well-deserved sabbatical, and for part of the time, Mick is completing a very long walk, which we look forward to hearing about on his return towards the end of next term. I am sure you will offer all the support Fr Damian requires during this period also.

As the federal election approaches, it's important to keep our SHPS community informed about the basic facts of school funding in Victoria. To this end the CECV has prepared an information sheet for distribution to school families. This information sheet highlights the importance of Commonwealth funding to the CECV education system, explaining how the federal government provides for 62 cents out of every dollar we spend. These data are presented in a factual, non-partisan manner that simply suggests that Catholic school families should take this information into account when making their decision now to vote.

Please remember that Monday 11th July, the first day back at school is a Pupil Free day.

Yesterday our Senior Girls and Boys football teams competed in the District AFL Championships. Well done to all involved. Have a restful, safe and refreshing break.

Des Lowry - Principal

ST PAULS PRIMARY SCHOOL

Congratulations to our Middle and Senior Unit Choirs who performed at the Eisteddfod on Monday. They were simply amazing!

On Friday we celebrated St Paul's Feast Day. It began with a lovely whole School liturgy celebrating the life of St Paul followed by family based activities and a shared lunch. Thank you to the staff students and parents who helped make it a wonderful celebration.

Our Parents and Friends committee are organising a Masquerade Ball as a social event and fundraiser for the school to be held at Willow & Ivie. There will be flyers circulating with more details early next term. The proposed date is Friday 21st October. This will be a formal evening with entertainment provided by a band from Melbourne. Enrolments for 2017 are still open for those families who have children starting school next year. Don't forget to come in and book an enrolment interview. Our Flying Start program kicks off next term. It is a five session program for an hour and a half, on a Friday, where your child gets to do some fun activities with one of our experienced prep teachers. It is completely free and open to any child currently attending 4 yr old kinder. If you have any friends who have not decided where to send their children, tell them about the program. It is absolutely free and no obligation to attend our school afterwards.

Have a great break over the holiday period.

As always, Keep the Faith.
