GIFTS FOR NEEDY CHILDREN

“Christmas is not a happy time for those in need in our community. Last year St Vincent de Paul and Stawell Inter Church Council Welfare distributed Christmas grocery shopping vouchers to 95 households made up of 256 individuals. New toys and books were given to 110 children 13 years and under. You can help locals in need by leaving a donation of a new unwrapped toy or children’s book under the Christmas giving tree at the back of the Church. Donations will be collected on Sunday 16th Dec and will be distributed on Wednesday 19th December.”

It is interesting that a person who was working with me, and whose family donated a considerable number of items last Christmas found their gifts in the pink shed near the church after Christmas. That family recovered their donations and gave them away themselves.

I WOULD HOPE THAT WE CAN BE ASSURED THAT ANY AND ALL DONATIONS BE HANDED OUT THE YEAR THEY ARE DONATED, EVEN IF THIS MEANS DOUBLING UP TO SOME CHILDREN.

Ask and You Shall Receive

Pastor Larson and his council president, Sven Johnson ended up in a heated argument over a seemingly minor worship detail.

“I suggest we go home and pray to God to grant us peaceful hearts,” said Pastor Larson as Sven stormed past him into the churchyard.

After worship the next Sunday morning, Sven greeted Pastor Larson warmly. “I took your advice,” he said. “I went home and said a prayer.”

“Great!” said Pastor Larson. “So did I! I prayed that God would grant us both peaceful hearts and a fresh start.”

“That’s not what I prayed,” said Sven. “I asked God to help me put up with you.”

Dear Father,

Christmas Appeal 2018

Our Christmas Appeal is one way by which the diocese can respond to the many communities from near and far who turn to us for assistance. Often these requests come through people who have bonds with the diocese of Ballarat.

I commend the Christmas Appeal to you and to your Parishioners. I am aware that there are many times throughout the year when you are invited to respond to appeals for very worthy causes, but I hope the Ballarat diocese can continue to support this particular appeal.

I thank the people of the diocese for their support of last year’s appeal. The money was distributed as follows:

Catholic Education in Myanmar	5,000
St Columban’s Mission Society	5,000
Caritas Australia	5,000
Catholic Mission	5,000
Coast FM Mackillop Family Services Christmas Appeal	3,000
3BA Christmas Appeal	3,000
Nazareth House Ballarat	3,000
The Soup Bus (Ontrack Foundation)	3,000
Opening the Doors Foundation	5,000
Exodus Community, Wendouree West	2,000
Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans (ACRATH)	2,000
Food Bank Victoria	5,000
Buy a Bale - Victoria	5,000
Total donations made in 2018	$51,000

In anticipation I thank you for your co-operation in recommending the 2018 Christmas Appeal to the generosity of your parishioners and giving them the opportunity to make their contribution on or about Christmas Day.

With every good wish, I am

Yours sincerely in Christ,

+ Paul Bird CSsR

POPE PRAYS FOR PEOPLE WHO TRANSMIT THE FAITH

Pope Francis has released a video message accompanying his prayer intention for December, which focuses on people who pass on the faith. Source: Vatican News.

In this month’s prayer intention, Pope Francis calls for prayers for people who “who are involved in the service and transmission of faith” that they may find ways to speak with others using “a language suited to the conditions of the present time” and by listening.

It has become the custom of Pope Francis to release a video message detailing his prayer intention for each month.

The full text of his intention is below:

If you want to share your faith through the word, you have to listen much and carefully.

Let us imitate the style of Jesus, who adapted himself to the people He had in front of Him so as to bring God’s love to them.

Let us pray that people who are involved in the service and transmission of faith may find, in their dialogue with culture, a language suited to the conditions of the present time, in their dialogue with people’s hearts, and above all, by listening much.

The Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network of the Apostleship of Prayer developed “The Pope Video” initiative to assist in the worldwide dissemination of monthly intentions of the Holy Father in relation to the challenges facing humanity.

NEXT WEEKS READINGS:

(A chance to prepare ahead)

Sunday, 16 Dec 2018: Third Sunday of Advent - Year C

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Zephaniah 3:14-18

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

With gladness the Lord will rejoice over you.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, shout aloud!

Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

The Lord has repealed your sentence; he has driven your enemies away.

The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst; you have no more evil to fear.

When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem: Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp.

The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior.

He will exult with joy over you, he will renew you by his love;

he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Isaiah 12:2-6 R. v.6

(R.) Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

1. Truly, God is my salvation, I trust, I shall not fear.

For the Lord is my strength, my song, he became my saviour.

With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. (R.)

2. Give thanks to the Lord, give praise to his name!

Make his mighty deeds known to the peoples!

Declare the greatness of his name. (R.)

3. Sing a psalm to the Lord for he has done glorious deeds, make them known to all the earth!

People of Zion, sing and shout for joy for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel. (R.)

Second Reading Philippians 4:4-7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

The Lord is near.

I want you to be happy, always happy in the Lord; I repeat, what I want is your happiness. Let your tolerance be evident to everyone: the Lord is very near. There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation Isaiah 61:1 (Lk 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;

he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 3:10-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

What, then, must we do?

When all the people asked John, ‘What must we do?’ he answered, ‘If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.’ There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, ‘Master, what must we do?’ He said to them, ‘Exact no more than your rate.’ Some soldiers asked him in their turn, ‘What about us? What must we do?’ He said to them, ‘No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!’

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, ‘I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.’ As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.

The Gospel of The Lord.

1. Questions for Adults

Q. How do you think the crowd, tax collectors and soldiers reacted to John’s words to them?

Q. Have you ever experienced a real ‘change of heart’?

Q. Apart from charitable giving, how can generosity be expressed?

Q. In what aspect/s of your life do you need to adopt a more generous spirit?

Q. What does it mean to you to be ‘baptised in the Holy Spirit’?

2. Have you thought? – A change of heart

The baptism that John preached and practised was a baptism of repentance. What he called on people to do was to recognise the areas of their lives that were unbalancing their relationship with God. There was a strong recognition that unless they were in right relationship with one another they could not be in right relationship with God. In recognising the need for change in their lives, John challenged them to also make a change of heart: to approach their lives differently. This is why they were questioning him about practical ways of living out their new commitment.

3. Gospel Focus – Baptised with the Holy Spirit

John makes clear to his audience the difference between himself and the Messiah who is still to come. His ritual of baptism will pale in comparison with the baptism with the Holy Spirit that the Christ will offer. Compared to a symbolic action of baptism, Jesus will offer the people a tangible experience of life in the Holy Spirit. He will give them not only a glimpse of the reign of God, but an invitation to enter fully into it. The baptism of the Holy Spirit is a lived experience, not just a ritual action.
