Historic Event Next Weekend

After the 10 o'clock Mass next Sunday, 19 January, we shall open the time capsule that was placed in the church on Sunday 22 January 1995 in commemoration of the Silver Jubilee of St Pius X Parish. At this stage, no one we have spoken to can remember what is in the time capsule, so surprises may be in store for us. Our intention is to replace the articles we find with a new collection to be opened by parishioners who are still here in the year 2045.

Reminder For 22 March

Now that our 2020 calendars and diaries are in use, we are reminded to make a note that on 22 March this year, the 10 a.m. Sunday Mass will be celebrated in the stadium at St John's School, Dennington, in commemoration of the school's centenary. There will be no Sunday morning Mass at St Pius X that day, though the 6 p.m. Vigil Mass will be celebrated in the church as usual on the evening of Saturday 21 March.

Leopoldine Mimovich R.I.P.

Belatedly, we acknowledge the death on Christmas Day of Mrs Leopoldine Mimovich. Mrs Mimovich was a well known and highly regarded artist who designed and carved the Stations of the Cross in St Pius X Church as well as many other statues and carvings in churches and other settings throughout the country. If you look very carefully at the Stations, you will see the artist's name carved there.

St John of God Book Sale

The St John of God Hospital Auxiliary will be conducting a book sale on the weekend of 18-19 January from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Fishing Club behind The Pavilion in Viaduct Road.

Mass Rosters

Readers and Ministers of Communion are reminded to look at the lists of liturgical ministers which are published in The Parish Pump each weekend. Readers are requested to prepare for their ministry by taking home a copy of Break Open the Word a week before they are rostered to read the Scripture to the congregation and to consider the information contained there. Ministers of Communion are asked to look at the rosters published among these notices; when circumstances make it impossible for them to take their rostered turn it would be appreciated if they could arrange for another Minister of Communion to take their place. Our thanks to all who serve the community in these important ways.
