Reflection on the Gospel-1st Sunday of Advent Year A (Matthew 24: 37-44)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

"Where is the Life we have lost in living?" asks the Chorus in T. S. Eliot's The Rock. The Jesus of Matthew's gospel is implicitly asking the same question as Eliot's Chorus. He is making much the same observation as Henry David Thoreau, "Most [people] lead lives of quiet desperation and go to the grave with the song still in them." We are invited to find Life in our living and to sing the songs that are in us. We are to be agents of our own future rather than unthinking participants in the destruction of our planet. Right now, the human community is challenged in unprecedented ways to restore the life we have lost by living beyond our means and by destructively exploiting the riches of the Earth.

As we begin a new liturgical year, Matthew's Jesus invites us to contemplate the ultimate realities even as we attend to the demands of the present. He tells us to be "awake", to be "ready" all the time, not because death or the end of the world are around the corner, but because we need to recognise the multiple "advents" or arrivals of the Christ, the Human One, who calls us beyond self-absorption to Life. He reminds us that we are no different from our forebears who from earliest days have gone about their daily business without being sufficiently attentive to what really matters.

In our times, we have allowed thieves to break in and plunder our planet, our common home, because thieves come in guises that we fail to recognise. They so often look just like us and do the things we do. It may be that we must first be attentive to our own ways of plundering the house that is home to all of God's creatures.

We spend much of our time looking back. That has its place, since our history informs our present and helps us in shaping our future, though all the while we know with Auden that '[t]he past is foreign country: they do things differently there'. Advent invites us to look forward rather than back and to dream gospel-inspired dreams that will enable creative change in our own lives and in the life of our planet. It invites us to be awake, to be ready for any eventuality.

Dreams and visions have always been the precursors to effective and life-giving change. We need the grace to see visions and to dream dreams that make for justice and peace and that permit us to walk more freely in the light of God's ways. We seek the grace to "see" God's word as did the prophet Isaiah in the first reading (Isa 2:1-5). We need to put our energy into creating life-generating systems that enable us to move forward in the paths of gospel compassion and love.

Our Parish Rose Show and Flower Festival Theme: 'Celebrations of Life'

We are proud of our Festival with good attendances, hospitality and participation at many levels including 420 children. This was our 20th Show and was organised by our Parish Flower Ladies—Helen Murphy and Sue Smith. Both were awarded for their efforts. Friendships were renewed and begun.

Thanks, Parish Co ordinating Team.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LET US GO REJOICING TO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD

I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.' And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. R.

It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord. For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David. R.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray: 'Peace be to your homes! May peace reign in your walls, in your palaces, peace!' R.

For love of my brethren and friends I say: 'Peace upon you!' For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good. R.

Mystery Of Faith

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

WREATH:

Open the heavens, Lord, come to your people, Hide not your face, O God. Open the heavens, Lord, come to your people, Open the heavens and come.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia!

Stay awake pray at all times, praying that you may be strengthened, that with confidence you can meet the Son of Man.

HYMNS:

- Entrance 71 Gather your People
- Gifts Taize 2 Wait for the Lord
- Communion 6 Lord To Whom Shall We Go
- 86 We Are Many Parts
- Recessional 2 Christ Be Our Light

Plenary Council Prayer

Lord
You once told us, 'Just as you did it to one of the least of these, who are members of my family, you did it to me.'
May our eyes be opened to the hungry, thirsty, naked, sick and imprisoned.
May our minds be freed from the bounds of self-interest, fear and prejudice.
May our hearts be moved to recognise and respond to the needs of your people.
May we be open to the fruits of your Spirit, so that our thoughts, words and actions can be infused with love, peace, compassion and selflessness.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

Marriage Tip: Today, make a list of things you love about each member of your family and share it with them.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for December

The Future of the Very Young
That every country determine to take the necessary measures to make the future of the very young, especially those who suffer, a priority.

Plenary Council

Theme: Missionary and Evangelising.

As we move into this second phase of the Plenary Council journey we are invited to reflect on Scripture, Church teaching and our contemporary situation to discern what it is that God is asking of us through the lens of the National Themes.

Our community will be praying and reflecting about the first National Theme for Discernment: How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church in Australia that is missionary and evangelising?

This is one of the six National Themes for Listening and Discernment that is preparing the Australian Church for the Plenary Council.

A community Listening and Discernment experience will be held at St. Joseph's on Tuesday December 3rd at 7.30pm.

To prepare for this session, you may wish to reflect on the following Scripture passage:

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem ... and to the ends of the earth.

-Acts 1:8

This theme arose as a result of communal listening and dialogue, with people sharing their hopes and dreams about the mission of the Church. We are now invited to deepen our discernment as we pray, reflect and listen to what the Spirit is calling us to in Australia

Forthcoming Events (December):

Tuesday Dec 3rd—Plenary Council Prayer Meeting "Missionary & Evangelising", St Joseph's 7.30pm;
Wednesday Dec 11th—Anointing Mass and High Afternoon Tea for Senior Parishioners, 1pm;
Wednesday Dec 18th—Mass for the Forgiveness of our Sins 7pm.
