COMMUNION TO LYNDROCH: 18 February: Margaret Dunne, Peter Flynn

Making Connections: How powerful that action of Jesus is—"Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him". The love and compassion behind that gesture is almost palpable. It is unlikely that the leper had experienced the intimacy and acceptance of human touch for a long time. This week, reach out and touch someone who needs a sign of acceptance or a gift of compassion.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. By responding to the leper and touching him, Jesus put himself 'outside the community' and is now forced to 'stay outside in places where nobody lived.'

Sharing the Tradition: Jesus' dealings with the leper and with all those who came to him for healing dictate the Church's attitude to those who find themselves isolated and excluded from the community for whatever reason. The mission of the Church is to be with the sick, the marginalised, the suffering, the excluded. The Church does this in a myriad of ways, both in Australia and in other countries of the world. What groups are on the edge in your community? In our nation? In our world?

Living the Word: How does your parish community reach out to those who are on the edges of society? What ministries are there which offer assistance to those who need help?

Marriage Tip: In marriage, arguments are seldom black and white, "I'm right and you're wrong."

Look for the golden mean when you're on opposite sides.

Daily Prayer: In Jesus you stretch out your hand, O God, to touch the unclean, to love the unlovely and to draw even the most despised and excluded into the circle of your beloved disciples and friends.

Embraced by such love, make us eager to heal others, glad to herald a Saviour whose kingdom includes all.

A Vocation View: Today's Gospel says that: "Jesus was moved with pity, when He saw a leper." Are you moved with love or pity when you see the outcast of today's society? Who will come forward to minister Christ today?

Pope's Prayer Intentions for February

Universal: Say "No" to Corruption

That those who have material, political or spiritual power may resist any lure of corruption.

Project Compassion Sunday

As we approach the holy season of Lent, may the concern of the Catholic community be one of love and compassion for all members of the human family. Guide us to act in solidarity with those most marginalised and vulnerable to injustice so together we can work for A Just Future for all.
Amen.

"You ask me whether I am in good spirits. How could I not be so? As long as faith gives me strength I will always be joyful!"

-Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, 24 years old, young adult social activist

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's second reading, St Paul urges the Corinthians to "do all for the glory of God." If we follow that advice in everything we do, we cannot help but be good stewards!

Ash Wednesday

*Remember that you are dust,
and to dust you shall return.*

ECCLESIASTES 3:20

- ◆ Lent begins next Wednesday.
- ◆ Lent is a penitential season of prayer, self-denial and helping others. In this way, the whole Church prepares for Easter with those who are being baptised.
- ◆ Catholics are obliged to receive holy communion at least once a year, between Ash Wednesday and Trinity Sunday.
- ◆ Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. The law of fasting binds those who have completed their eighteenth year, until the beginning of their sixtieth year; the law of abstinence binds those who have completed their fourteenth year.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

I TURN TO YOU, LORD, IN TIME OF TROUBLE, AND YOU FILL ME WITH THE JOY OF SALVATION.

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven, whose sin is remitted. O happy the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. R.

But now I have acknowledged my sins; my guilt I did not hide. I said: 'I will confess my offence to the Lord.' And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin. R.

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, exult, you just! O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, Praise the word of Truth and Life.

Tree of life and endless wisdom, be our root, our growth and glory.

HYMNS:

Entrance	31	Come As You Are
Gifts	80	Sing A New Song
Communion	129	One Bread, One Body
	28	Praise To You
Recessional	166	Open My Eyes Lord

Mystery Of Faith

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

Project Compassion 2018 Prayer

God of all peoples and nations, you accompany us on our Lenten journey. Through the life and mission of your son, you give us the gift of mercy. May we learn to walk your ways of justice and compassion with all your people.

In a special way, we keep in mind the children, women and men around the world who are most vulnerable to extreme poverty and injustice. In this Year of Youth, may we support young people as they recognise that through their efforts, their desire to change and their generosity, they too are participating in the building of a better world.

Bless our prayers, our fasting and our Lenten gifts to Project Compassion. Through these actions, may our hearts be open to receive your grace as we work towards a just future for all your creation.

We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen

Pope Francis declared 8 February to be the world day of prayer and action against human trafficking. He chose this day because it is the feast day of St Josephine Bakhita, patron saint of Sudan and of victims of slavery. Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped as a child from Africa and sold into slavery in the Sudan and in Italy before being freed and becoming a Canossian Sister. Find out more about the campaign at <http://acrath.org.au/world-day-of-prayer/>
Former Parishioner of St Carthage's Allansford, Fr Ted Hart now of Bendigo, was honored on Australia Day 'for service to the Catholic Church and to the community'. Mr. Eric Howard formally of Dennington was honored "for significant service to road transport safety through consultancy roles, to professional bodies and to the community."

The Rite of Election will take place at the Cathedral next Saturday at 12.30pm for Adults preparing for Baptism.
