Making Connections: In this gospel, physical deafness could be seen as a symbol of being closed off from the world around us. Are there voices you do not hear, or do not hear well enough, in your family or workplace; in our nation or our world? Are we always attentive enough to those who have something to say to us?

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. Tyre and Sidon are cities on the Mediterranean coast in the far north of Israel, now southern Lebanon. They were the leading cities of the Phoenicians. This was not Jewish territory. Jesus entered the realm of Gentiles. The Decapolis was a federation of ten cities with a largely Greek culture. Most were in the area of the eastern side of the Jordan River to the South of the Sea of Galilee. 'Ephphatha' is an Aramaic word. Aramaic was a commonly spoken Semitic language and probably the language spoken by Jesus. The deaf hearing and the dumb speaking are signs of the coming of the Messiah and the advent of the kingdom of God. Jesus the Messiah is bringing the kingdom of God to fulfillment now!

Exploring the Word: Following the route as outlined, Jesus would not have set foot on Jewish territory. He remains in Gentile land. The healing offered by the good news is for all people to access. The miracle is not wrought by the use of gestures alone. To these gestures are added Jesus' gaze towards heaven, a sign of his union with God, and the commanding word of Jesus. It is this combination of the actions and the words of Jesus which produce the results. This man is now open to a whole new way of living in the world, no longer dependant on others but free to take his place in the community. Jesus had clashed with the religious leadership of Israel. In this text, however, we see that it is the Gentiles who recognise Jesus and are open to his message and ministry.

Sharing the Tradition: Jesus used both word and action to bring about this miracle. The symbolic actions are indications of a deeper reality at work. The words are another expression of that deeper reality. The Church continues to use both words and actions to convey the deeper reality of God's love and presence in our lives and our world. The liturgy is full of symbolic actions and rituals gestures: the sign of the cross, kneeling, standing, raising the host and chalice, striking the breast, signing forehead, lips and breast with a cross before the gospel is read, bowing to the tabernacle or altar, the sign of peace. The sacraments of the Church are administered using both gesture and word as well as material symbols like oil, water, bread, wine, a ring.

Symbols & Images: Jesus could have healed this man with words alone but he chooses to use gestures as well. The actions are a sign of what is taking place. Ritual gestures continue to be a rich means of communication in the Church.

Living the Word: Pray for openness to the word and action of God in your life.

Daily Prayer: O strong and faithful God, open our eyes to your presence everywhere. Unstop our ears to hear the challenge of your word. Loose our tongues in songs of praise and fearless witness to your justice.

Marriage Tip: Psychologically, negative messages are more powerful than positive ones. If you've been hard on yourself lately, list three things you did well today. It'll make you a more pleasant person for your spouse to be around.

Vocational View: Has not God chosen the poor of the world to inherit the kingdom? Chosen to be rich in faith. So take heart, be not afraid, consider your part in God's Kingdom.

Season of Creation

'In approaching the 'Season of Creation' I would like to reflect on the fact that we live in an evolving and expanding universe where nothing is entirely fixed, unchanging or predictable, all is in process of Becoming. The process of evolution, of God's creative energy constantly flaring forth in newness, is the essence of mystery. "The universe as a whole in all its manifold relationships shows forth the inexhaustible richness of God" (LS 86). Our Common Home is abundantly endowed for the good of all life.

These resources, while abundant, are finite, and therefore need responsible management in co-operation with Earth's processes.

"Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God" (LS 84)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

PRAISE THE LORD, MY SOUL

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan, but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.
