'STANDING IN SOLIDARITY – NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER AND ACTION': During National Child Protection Week (September 4th - 10th) let us say a small prayer for all those who have suffered injustice all around us over the years, those who are weak, down trodden, those who do not have a voice, those scared and isolated, those who are sick and suffering some sort of sickness, people with a disability, those who are aged and our children in particular. May God help all those who have been suffering and those to whom injustice was done. May those who have witnessed this done to others be brave enough to stand up and stop it from happening. May God give each one who are suffering, the strength and courage to speak up and may His grace protect each and everyone and give them inner healing and peace. In a world of chaos and confusion, may God be the calm in our storm. Let us join together in prayer to help rebuild our world.

JUST WHAT IS SACRIFICE? Fr. Pat Flanagan's book on the Eucharist $10 from parish office and holy goods stall.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK: Prayer for all dads/fathers/grand dads.

God our heavenly Father, in your infinite wisdom and love, today we ask you to bless all dads especially those who have taken upon themselves, the responsibility of parenting. Bless those who have lost a spouse to death or divorce who are parenting their children alone. Guide them, strengthen them and fill their hearts with love, patience and tolerance that they may be and become the loving, caring dads (and grand dads) they are meant to be. Inspire them to teach their children right from wrong and to always do the right thing no matter how difficult that may be especially in today's world. May all dads make their children feel loved and cared for and always make time for them no matter how busy they maybe. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen

On a lighter note, "By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong." Quote by Charles Wadworth
