THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied
he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him
save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R.

2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.

3. They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! R.

4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' R.

SECOND READING

Philippians 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians
His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler
yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings
in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless
glory!

GOSPEL: Will be read by rostered reader.

What words or phrases stand out for you? The death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, his love on the Cross, are what call us to be missionary disciples, inviting us to recognise each other as brothers and sisters of the larger human family, and especially of those who feel themselves orphans ... the Church must always be known for its closeness to the peoples of this earth and their struggle for dignity and freedom. In each culture where it is present, the Church must see people's sorrows and its hopes – and especially those of the poorest — as its own. The Church walks as part of the people, serving it ... To embrace the margins is to expand our horizons, for we see more clearly and broadly from the edges of society.

Two of your Bulletin Ladies are retiring. Please speak to Liz McGuane/Carmel Finlay to register your interest in taking on this important role for the Parish.
