Our New Parish Name ~ Need another option

After our Parish meetings at Mortlake & Terang to discuss the merger of our Parishes, it was agreed to conduct a vote of Parishioners at all masses last weekend. There were 2 shortlisted names that were chosen at the meetings.

Catherine McAuley was chosen as the preferred name - albeit by 2 votes. We submitted this request to Bishop Paul yesterday for his approval. We have received a response from Bishop Paul last night. Unfortunately, because Catherine McAuley has not been canonised or beatified, Vatican policy does not allow for a Church or Parish to be named after her.

So, where to next.....

NB: Catherine McAuley may not be canonised for a few years, so it is not an option to wait.

Our options at the moment are:

To either start the process again or continue with the process and go with Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Other suggestions are welcome, but a decision should be made by the end of next weekend. So please contact Fr Gary or Clare or email the Parish terang@ballarat.catholic.org.au. You may also put a note on the collection plate next weekend
