Making Connections: Be lavishly generous to someone this week—with your time, attention, care and concern.

Marriage Tip: Yesterday is over and today is a new day. Live in the present with your spouse and let go of yesterday's mistakes.

Daily Prayer: Our sins, which were many, you have forgiven; may we therefore, show great love not only to you, the source of such grace, but to all our sisters and brothers, sinners embraced by your love.

A Vocation View: The more your sins are forgiven, the more love you must show - what greater love than to lay down your life for others in a vocation to the priesthood or religious life?

Pope's Prayer Intentions for June

UNIVERSAL: Human Solidarity

That the aged, marginalised, and those who have no one may find—even within the huge cities of the world—opportunities for encounter and solidarity.

EVANGELISATION: Seminarians and Novices

That seminarians and men and women entering religious life may have mentors who live the joy of the Gospel and prepare them wisely for their mission.

Jesus

We pray for universal solidarity, in the hearts of your people with the aged, homeless, forgotten and lonely. Help us to see each person as your creation and find ways to better serve them in our society.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all, Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Like Nathan in today's first reading, we sin when we begin to feel entitled and act as if what we have is ours by right, when we forget that everything we have is an unmerited gift from God. But God is gracious and forgiving—even when we use His gifts wrongly or squander them thoughtlessly—if, like Nathan, we confess our guilt and ask His pardon.

There's Nothing Ordinary about Ordinary Time

The name 'Ordinary Time' for that part of the Church year outside the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter is rather an unfortunate term. The word 'ordinary' usually means something that is unexceptional or uninteresting. However, the word 'ordinary' as used in 'Ordinary Time' means that the Sundays after the seasons of Christmas and Easter are counted in order, using ordinal numbers.

There is no such thing as 'ordinary time' in Christian worship. Gathering as the body of Christ to offer praise and worship to God is always something extra-ordinary!

The green of Ordinary Time points to our Christian hope and life as we celebrate the presence of God in the normal, day-to-day patterns of human life.

During this time of the Church's year, we devote ourselves to exploring Christian discipleship in all its aspects and entering into the mystery of Christ in its fullness.
- C.E. Harrington

"The sinful woman teaches us the connection between faith, love, and recognition. 'Many sins' have been forgiven her and therefore she has loved much ... God has wrapped each and every one of us in the same mystery of mercy; and from his love, which always comes to us first, we learn how to love."

— Pope Francis, General Audience 20 April, 2016

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LORD, FORGIVE THE WRONG I HAVE DONE

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven. Whose sin is remitted. O happy the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. R.

But now I have acknowledged my sins: my guilt I did not hide. I said: I will confess my offence to the Lord.' And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin. R.

You are my hiding place, O Lord; you save me from distress. You surround me with cries of deliverance. R.

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, exult, you just! O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia

Speak, O Lord, your servant listens, yours the Word of life eternal. Alleluia, Alleluia

Mystery Of Faith

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

A Prayer for the Federal Election

As voters prepare to go to the poles of 2 July 2016, Australia's Catholic Bishops have released a prayer for the Federal Election.

Holy God, at the dawn of time you fashioned the world and set it on its course. In the fullness of time your Son took flesh and sowed the seeds of a new order, and day by day your Spirit works to bring to birth your realm of mercy, justice and peace.

We give you thanks for Australia, the Great South Land of the Holy Spirit. In this Spirit we pray for our land and all its people as the nation prepares to elect a new Federal Parliament.

We pray for the women and men who have offered themselves as candidates for public office. May those who are elected set their hearts always on honorable service and the common good.

We pray for the citizens of this much-blessed country, that they may take up their responsibility to vote with wisdom and freedom, and choose what is best for the whole community.

Loving God, to listen to your Son is to be moved to speak up for the unseen and unheard. Give us hearts to heed your Word and mouths to declare your truth. We pray that throughout this election campaign Christian communities will be a voice for the voiceless.

We especially remember refugees and asylum seekers, Indigenous peoples, survivors of sexual abuse, those who suffer family violence, those in the womb, the elderly, those suffering mental illness, those suffering addiction, those entrapped in new forms of slavery and the desperately poor beyond our shores.

We hold before you the whole of our world, both social and natural. We pray for a healthy society in which marriage and family life is respected and supported. We pray for the earth our home—the land on which we dwell, the air we breathe, the water we drink—that creation's cry for healing and care is heard.

Bless all who are elected to serve the nation; may the wisdom and courage of the Holy Spirit guide them to govern for the good of all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

As we near the end of the financial year we extend a friendly reminder for parishioners to present their annual donations.
