Characteristics of a Synodal Church

- is founded on the recognition of a common dignity deriving from Baptism,
- cannot be understood other than within the horizon of communion,
- is a listening Church,
- is not afraid of the variety it bears, but values it without forcing it into uniformity,
- promotes the passage from "I" to "we,"
- desires to be humble, and knows that it must ask forgiveness and has much to learn,
- is a Church of encounter and dialogue
- is open, welcoming and embraces all,
- confronts honestly and fearlessly the call to a deeper understanding of the relationship between love and truth,
- is the ability to manage tensions without being crushed by them,
- unceasingly nourishes itself at the source of the mystery it celebrates in the liturgy.

Pope's intention for July For a Eucharistic Life.

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and be opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.
