LEADERS of PRAYER

Fr Anthony will remain in the Star of the Sea Parish until mid-July. Fr Bill returns next weekend.

There will probably be some occasions when there may not be a priest available for the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. All parishes need to ensure that appropriately selected and trained people are available to respond at such times to ensure that the Sunday Assembly takes place.

Those who lead the Sunday Assembly in Prayer should:

- ◇ be known and accepted by the parish community
- ◇ have an adequate background in the Christian faith
- ◇ possess basic communication skills
- ◇ be able to work with others on a team to plan liturgical services
- ◇ be publicly commissioned for the ministry of lay leadership in prayer

(Fr John)

In view of the above, parishioners are invited to attend Formation Sessions in order to enable our communities to lead Prayer in the absence of a priest.

The Formation will be in two stages, held at St Joseph's at 7.00pm

1st Meeting - Wednesday 14th June: Scripture and Theology (led by Fr John Fitzgerald)

2nd Meeting - Wednesday 21st June: Practicalities of an Assembly

PRIMACY OF THE WORD

The importance of the Word of God is that it is God speaking to us. The Liturgy of the Word is a dialogue between God and the People of God, a dialogue carried out in proclamation and reflection, attentive listening and in the response of prayer.
