Gospel Reflection Veronica Lawson rsm

The celebration of Mary as Mother of God has very ancient roots. Mary was venerated in the East from the early third Christian century as theotokos, a Greek term that means God-Bearer. This designation for Mary was affirmed by the Council of Ephesus in 431 CE. The subsequent Council of Chalcedon in 451 CE, in the face of arguments to the contrary, declared that Jesus was both fully human and fully divine, that Mary Mother of God is rightly called theotokos. At Christmas, the liturgy invites us to focus on Luke's story of the birth of Jesus of Nazareth and John's reflection on the Word made Flesh. Today's liturgy shifts the focus to Mary, through whose "yes" the mystery of the incarnation is realized. Today's Gospel takes up the Lukan account of the birth of Jesus. Mary has given birth to her son, wrapped him in bands of cloth and laid him in a manger. An angel announced the good news to shepherds who are tending their flocks in the fields. The shepherds have listened to the proclamation of the angel and the heavenly host that joined the angel and set out in search of the child. They find Mary and Joseph and the child lying in the manger, just as the angel had told them. Shepherds become the proclaimers of the good news of salvation. A little later, we hear the story of the twelve year old Jesus going up to Jerusalem with his parents for Passover and staying behind in the temple, teaching the teachers. Mary and Joseph listen to his explanation about remaining "in his Father's house" or "being about his Father's business" though they fail to understand. Mary "his mother treasured all these things in her heart." Mary has to struggle to comprehend the ways of God in her life. She is presented as a grace-filled woman forever pondering the mysterious ways of God. We too are called to treasure "all these things" in our hearts and trust that their power will transform our lives even if we do not always understand.

New Year. Pope Francis reflects on 2016

This year we have lived was a special year: there was the Holy Year of Mercy. We also did our Jubilee together. This year the Lord had His mercy flow over us. And did all this grace end with the conclusion of the Jubilee? No! This grace is within us, because we make it fructify in our every day life, be it in the family, be it at work - everywhere. Christmas reminds us of this: "The grace of God appeared, which brings salvation to all men and teaches us to live in this world with sobriety, justice and mercy" (Tt 2: 1), says Paul. The "grace of God" "appeared" in Jesus. He is Love, the love of God incarnate, by the power of the Holy Spirit. And we have received this same Spirit in Baptism and in Confirmation, we must invoke Him every day, reawaken the action of the Spirit in us, "to live in this world with sobriety, justice and mercy." Dear brothers and sisters, while I thank you, I ask you to take my special greeting to the children and elderly of your families. They are so important - and a greeting accompanied by prayer to the sick. I express this wish for all: that your hearts be full of mercy, full of grace of the Jubilee that Jesus comes to rekindle in us. May the Lord bless you and may our Lady protect you. And, remember to pray for me before the Crib.

Extract from Pope Francis message of peace for World Peace Day 2017 "All of us want peace. Many people build it day by day through small gestures and acts; many are suffering, yet patiently persevere in their efforts to be peacemakers".[24] In 2017, may we dedicate ourselves prayerfully and actively to banish violence from our hearts, words and deeds, to building nonviolent communities that care for our common home. "Nothing is impossible if we turn to God in prayer. Everyone can be an artisan of peace". Right relationships in the covenant of God are the pathways of peace. The beginning of a New Year is a good time to reach out to others and to pray for God's blessing of peace for each other.

We welcome to the Family of God in Baptism:

1st Reading: Numbers 6:22-
The Lord spoke to Moses and said, 'Say this to Aaron and his sons: "This is how you are to bless the sons of Israel. You shall say to them: May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace." This is how they are to call down my name on the sons of Israel, and I will bless them.'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 66:2
May God bless us in his mercy.

God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help.

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples. you guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him.

May God bless us in his mercy.

2nd Reading: Galatians 4:4-7
When the appointed time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born a subject of the Law, to redeem the subjects of the Law and to enable us to be adopted as sons. The proof that you are sons is that God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts: the Spirit that cries, 'Abba, Father,' and it is this that makes you a son, you are not a slave any more; and if God has made you son, then he has made you heir.

Acclamation: Hebrews 1:1-2
Alleluia, alleluia!

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; now he speaks to us through his Son. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 2:16-21

The shepherds hurried away to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. When they saw the child they repeated what they had been told about him, and everyone who heard it was astonished at what the shepherds had to say. As for Mary, she treasured all these things and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds went back glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen; it was exactly as they had been told. When the eighth day came and the child was to be circumcised, they gave him the name Jesus, the name the angel had given him before his conception.

Making Connections: Mary is honoured as the model of discipleship for the Church and for all believers. This week, be very conscious of responding to situations and to peoples as a faithful disciple of Jesus. Each time you feel you have acted as a disciple should, say a brief prayer of thanks to Mary.

Marriage Tip: Relax and enjoy each other's company.

Daily Prayer: God of peace, whose providence guides the changing seasons of every year and of all our lives; in the fullness of time, you fashioned in the Virgin Mother Mary a dwelling place for your Word made flesh among us. Bless with the joy of your Holy Spirit the first day of this new year, that through all days allotted to us, we may, like Mary, rejoice in grace and embrace your will. Bless and keep, in this new year, all who cry out to you "Abba!" Make your face to shine on all who have been adopted in Mary's Son. Lift up your countenance, and in the power of you Spirit, give us peace.

A Vocation View: Mary, Mother of the Priest Jesus, is Mother to all Priests and Religious. Pray to Mary, ask her guidance in all our vocations, work and activities in life in 2017.
