9 July, 2017. 14th Sunday of Ordinary Time (A)

Reflection on the Gospel-14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A (Matthew 11:25-30) -Veronica Lawson RSM

The final verses of today's gospel are among the best known and best loved in all of the gospel tradition. "Come to me...and I will give you rest" is a lovely invitation. It is issued to those who are weary and burdened, and that includes most of us at some or another. The "rest" that Jesus offers is God's rest. It is not just relief from drudgery and hard work. In the biblical tradition, rest is shabbat. It is freedom from any sort of enslavement, freedom to remember God's goodness in creation. Rest time or shabbat is about making a space to contemplate the wonder of the galaxies, the wonder of life in all its forms and all its potentialities. God's rest restores life to our wearied spirits. It frees us to open ourselves to ever new possibilities and to be there for others. For me, spending a little time each day with a poem or a beautiful painting, even a postcard, has become an experience of entering into God's rest.

"Take my yoke upon you..." is Jesus' further invitation. Later in this gospel, the same verb will be used when Jesus tells his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." The "yoke" of Jesus, the cross that he will take up, and the cross that his disciples are invited to bear are all of a piece. A yoke is a cross-beam or cross-bar. Jesus will carry his cross-beam to execution. Disciples, in their turn, will carry their cross-beams, figuratively if not literally. They will not be weighed down or burdened by this prospect for the "yoke" of which Jesus speaks is easy and the burden is light. How can this be? The answer lies in the final invitation: "Learn of me, for I am gentle and humble of heart..." In Matthew's beatitudes, the gentle are those who inherit the earth. There is nothing weak about the gentle ("meek" is not a helpful translation). The non-violent methods of the gentle are infinitely more effective in restoring creation than the violence of so many who present themselves as "wise and intelligent". God's "rest" is the source of their power-and of ours.

Responsorial Psalm: I will praise your name for ever, my King and my God

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia.

Deaths:

Anniversaries: Alice O'Donnell, Jim Gercovich, Molly Reilly, Reese Morgan, Eileen Lynch, Kevin Deady and Brian Kenna.

We pray: for the sick of our Parishes especially Blake Dridan (pupil at St Columba's School) & Lesley Bigarelli.

ST COLUMBA'S PARISH NEWS

Baptisms This weekend we welcome Max and Imogen son and daughter of Emily and Simon Booker. May Max and Imogen grow in the love and support of their family and our parish. We also welcome Leni Svanosio who will be welcomed into the Church on Sunday morning.

Children's Newsletter We now have a separate newsletter for our children. There is some activities and colouring for them and some questions for parents to help with discussion. We are hoping to make this a regular feature so we would appreciate your feedback.

Opening of the New Parish Office We are happy to report that we are finally in and functioning. Please feel free if you are down at the church to call in and have a look. You would be most welcome. Blessing and walk through on Sunday 23 July following the 10am Mass
