MICHAEL MANGAN WORKSHOP/CONCERT

Our school community has the opportunity to participate in a workshop and concert with Michael Mangan. He is a musician who sings religious songs, many of which we use in our school masses and liturgies. This year he has written music to complement the Year of Mercy. This concert will take place in the church on Wednesday 20th July from 2pm-3.10pm. Parishioners are welcome to join with our school community at this special occasion.

MINI VINNIE'S NEWS

Over the past weeks, the Mini Vinnie's group have been promoting the Vinnie's Winter Appeal. We have asked for items to support people who are homeless. We have had many donations of blankets, scarves, beanies and slippers. We thank our school community for their generous and wonderful support.

Our group has been enjoying visits to Hailey House each month. The children love to share their learning with the residents. It is a wonderful experience for all concerned..... Alison Thorpe

Words of Wisdom.....

People are often unreasonable, illogical and self-centred.

FORGIVE THEM ANYWAY.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish motives.

BE KIND ANYWAY

If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies.

SUCCEED ANYWAY

If you are honest and sincere, people may deceive you.

BE HONEST & SINCERE ANYWAY

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight.

BUILD ANYWAY

If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous.

BE HAPPY ANYWAY.

Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough.

GIVE THEM YOUR BEST ANYWAY.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God;

IT NEVER WAS BETWEEN YOU AND THEM ANYWAY.

THE REMOVAL OF RIBBONS FOR SUPPORT OF SEXUAL ABUSE VICTIMS

We at St Columba's are working with other Ballarat parishes regarding this sensitive issue. A group of people including two St Columba's parishioners, travelled to St Marys Geelong three weeks ago and were involved in a beautiful ceremony cutting down the majority of ribbons which were then stored in a glass container in the Church. There are discussions in place and we are holding off until further advised ..... (Leadership Team)

Reflection on the Gospel-13th Sunday in Ordinary Time C (Luke 9:51-62)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

Gary Cohen's film, Judah & Mohammad, depicts the separate lives and education of two teenage school boys, one a Jewish Israeli and the other a Palestinian Arab. Judah and Mohammad have never met and are unlikely ever to do so. Geographically they are near neighbours, but their lives are separated by a "security wall" that keeps them and their people effectively separated and suspicious of each other, despite the desire for peace of many on both sides of the wall. Sandy Tolan's heart-wrenching novel, The Lemon Tree, tells a similar story of women on either side of the divide. Both stories reflect a contemporary story of violent conflict and hostility. That is more or less how it was between Jews and Samaritans in the first century, although the hostility in that instance had endured for centuries.

A gracious welcome for Jesus and his friends could hardly have been expected in that climate, although it seems they would have been welcomed had Jesus planned to stay and worship in the temple on Mt. Gerizim, the centre of Samaritan life and worship. The problem for the Samaritans is his decision to use Samaritan territory simply as a staging post on his journey to Jerusalem, the centre of Jewish life and worship. The Samaritans "did not receive him because his face was set towards Jerusalem".

The Galilean Jewish disciples James and John have an excessively violent reaction to the unwelcoming Samaritans: "Do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" The force of this question can easily be lost. James and John have heard Jesus telling them to love their enemies, to do good to those who hate them, bless those who curse them, and pray for those who mistreat them (6:28-28). And yet they want to call down fire on those who do not receive him. Jesus makes it clear that violence is not the way of God's prophet, even in the face of rejection. He has no word of condemnation for the villagers who failed to receive him but simply moves on to another village. The text simply says that he turns and rebukes his two disciples.

There is a sense of relentlessness in this gospel passage. Jesus has "set his face to Jerusalem" and there is no turning back for him or for those who join him on the journey. Jesus, in the company of his disciples, now moves inexorably to Jerusalem where he will be "lifted up" in death and exaltation. Bringing the good news of God's kin-dom is the purpose of the journey. We are invited to enter into that journey with all its demands and deprivations. There is no room on this journey, it seems, for clinging to familiar securities.
