News from the Coordinators (Joan, Catherine & Michael)

Thank you to the parishioners who attended the Parish Assembly last week. Your support is very much appreciated. Clara Geoghegan's presentation was very informative and has left many of us pondering what are our Gifts/Charisms, and how to use them in our everyday life. Last week Natasha Buttgeieg was appointed as our Parish Secretary. Natasha lives in Ballan and her three daughters attend St Brigids. Natasha is very enthusiastic and looking forward to being an integral part of our Parish life. We also thank Narelle Conroy for all that she has done for the Parish over the years, she saw us through many changes and she has made herself available to help Natasha to settle into her new role. We wish Narelle and her family all the best in their future pursuits.

Welcome to Bianca Flint

This Sunday in Gordon, we welcome Bianca Flint into the catechumenate, the first public step in her journey to Baptism in the Catholic Church. Our support and prayers are with her, her family and her sponsors. After Mass, we will have morning tea where we can show our welcome and support for Bianca personally.
