11th April 2021 ~ Second Sunday of Easter (B)

Focus on the Scriptures

Some of us may remember when we spoke of the Sundays after Easter. The terminology has changed and we now speak of the Sundays of Easter. In other words, we now recognise that the liturgical readings and prayers for each Sunday between Easter and Pentecost invite us into a different movement of the one great symphony of resurrection faith.

The first scene in today's gospel has the disciples hiding behind closed doors "for fear" of those who had handed Jesus over to be executed by the Roman authorities. Jesus appears among them, offers a greeting of peace, and tells them that he has been sent by God, his "Father". They receive from him the gift of the Holy Spirit. He sends them in turn to bring peace and to mediate the forgiveness of God through the power of the Spirit. In other words, he sends them to create communities of people who listen to one another and who love one another into life. The story invites us as believers to place ourselves in the shoes of the earliest disciples. It invites us to receive the gift of the Spirit, to emerge from behind the doors that close us in on ourselves and that prevent us from rising above the fears that control and even paralyse us. We render the gospel ineffective, even powerless, when we make self-protection our priority.

The second and third scenes in today's gospel focus on Thomas who is not with the other disciples when Jesus first appears in their midst. Thomas is not exactly the trusting type. He seems to trust only his own first hand experience. We all know people like Thomas. They test our patience because they seem to lack imagination. Then they make big statements when they come around to understanding what everyone else has known for a while. If we think, however, that the other disciples are any better than Thomas, we need to note that the doors are still closed eight days down the track! The simple fact of knowing has not dispelled the fears.

Even those of us who do believe and trust need a bit of time and encouragement to take the gospel message to heart. We often need the example and support of others to move out beyond our personal fears and embrace the pain of the wider world. We are asked to do this right now as we ponder the wisdom of being vaccinated against COVID 19. Some are more fearful of the vaccine than of the virus. It may be helpful to look back to today's first reading from Acts (2:32-35) where Luke presents an idealised picture of the post resurrection Jerusalem community: all things in common and the gospel received with great respect. We are called to rise above our own fears and respond with love and generosity in times of crisis, to live the gospel message from death through resurrection and into "ordinary time".

Veronica Lawson rsm

Responsorial Psalm: (R) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy are those who have not seen me, but still believe! Alleluia!

Recently Deceased: We commend to God: Tony McDonald, Gillian Briody, Father Phil Crotty S.J.,

Anniversaries: We remember: Corrina Burns, Jack Moran, Eileen McLoughlan

We pray: Those in need of our prayers; all the sick in our Parishes especially Jan Mullaly and Pat Hogan. For the success of the Plenary Council.

The Season of Easter is a period of 50 days that celebrates the joy of the sacred Paschal Triduum, the three day centre of the liturgical Year. It begins with the week-long celebration of the Octave of Easter and concludes with Pentecost Sunday. During the Easter season the Church rejoices in the resurrection and ascension of the Lord, and the bestowal of the Spirit. It is a period of renewal and commitment to that same mission taken up by the early Christian communities. For those who have been newly initiated, it is a time to reflect on their experiences and is oriented towards spiritual growth and entering more fully into the life of the community.

St Columba's St Vincent de Paul would like your prayerful support, as we seek to find new members to enable us to continue to support the needy in our Ballarat North community. If you would like to discuss this with someone on the committee, speak with Josie or Tim after Mass, or contact the Parish Office, Thank you.

We pray for women and families impacted by violence Catholic Social Services Victoria have provided a number of resources to assist with the prevention of the devastating impact of violence against women and families. They have developed a poster with some key telephone numbers that can be placed in your parish or school office should someone seek help — on a noticeboard to catch someone's eye, or sent around electronically to increase awareness of options and what services are available to assist someone if they are facing issues of domestic violence. Contact tracing please ensure you sign-in as you enter the Church with your name and contact number. Both parishes have a permanent list in the foyer for each weekend Mass. If your name is on this list, you just need to tick your name off. If you are regularly attending that Mass each weekend you can ask to go on the permanent list, as this makes it quicker for all involved. Please note that we don't require pre-registering for Masses however, we are still limited to 125 (Ballarat North) and 165 (Wendouree). If we reach capacity we will unfortunately need to close the doors before the commencement of Mass.
