Kathleen's Corner:

'Anyone who describes asylum-seekers – regardless of how they got here – as "illegals" is guilty of perpetuating a big lie', writes *Hugh Mackay. .... we all know what's happening. The brutality, the cruelty – amounting to sustained mental torture – occurring in the detention centres is not some little secret known only to a few insiders. This is Australian government policy, out in the open, supported and sustained on both sides of politics. This is a national disgrace, and we are all complicit.

*Hugh Mackay is a social researcher and author. His latest book, Beyond Belief, is published by Macmillan.

Fr Robert McCulloch - The Columban Order.

The Columban Order operates a hospital in a very poor city in Pakistan that cares for a community of 50000 people including many pregnant women and small children. The Pakistani provides no monetary support at all. Recent floods have destroyed nearly all the equipment and supplies. Fr Robert McCulloch, a Columban, has been talking about the plight of the hospital in Churches throughout Victoria and is asking for help to continue the work on the hospital. If you would like to help you can contact the Columbans at info@columban.org.au or on 03 93759475. You can also talk to Lorraine Tipple who has heard Fr McCulloch speak.
