Focus on the Scriptures

Perhaps one of the most difficult lessons to learn is forgiveness of those whom we consider our enemies, those who have wronged us. As challenging as this may be, the Gospel calls us to a very high standard: we must be merciful as God is merciful. If such perfection can become a reality in our lives, we will be able to forgive. Paul assures us that we can indeed attain such perfection, not by ourselves, but through the power of the risen Lord whose image we bear.

Paul plays with the theology of creation. In the beginning, we were made like the first Adam, earthly, limited, weak, concerned about the things of this world, and committed to our own well being. Through baptism we have been fashioned after the image of the second Adam, Christ the risen Lord. Being like Christ, we become godlike, empowered with his saving power, transformed with him into new beings. It is now in our power, which is really the power of the resurrection, to be merciful as God is merciful. In the risen Lord we experience a mystical transformation. From now on, all of our actions can flow from this new reality.

Transformed by the power of the resurrection, we are capable of unprecedented good works. We can live without retaliation; we can render good for evil. We can be prodigal in our generosity toward others; we can relinquish any rights of proprietorship that we might enjoy. We can live with others without unfairly judging them. We can be like God, boundless in our forgiveness.

We pray: for the sick of our Parishes, especially Saskiah Gallagher, Blake Dridan, for the success of the Plenary Council and for those on the RCIA & RCIC journey for 2019.

Stewardship Reflections "But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back." (Luke 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Mercy and compassion will put us on the path to holiness

Parish 'Our Future' Forum All parishioners are warmly invited to special forums as part of the Program – the Our Future Forum This week- Ballarat North: Tuesday February 26th at 10.30am and 7.00pm in the foyer of St Columba's Church; Wendouree: Thursday 28th February at 10.30 and 7.00pm in OLHC Church. Rite of Election is an important part of the process of a person's journey to full membership in the Catholic Church community and one which is greatly appreciated by all who participate. This applies to both adults and children of catechetical age. The Rite of Election for catechumens, candidates and children of catechetical age will take place on Saturday, March 2, at 12.30 pm at St Patrick's Cathedral, Ballarat. The presider will be Bishop Paul Bird CSsR. For further information contact the Pastoral Ministry Office, ph. 5337 7159 or pastoralministry@ballarat.catholic.org.au.

Ash Wednesday Masses (Wednesday 6th March) will be at 9.15am at OLHC and 11am at St Columba's.

RCIA—At St Columba's This weekend our three adult and six children will make the next step in their journey towards full acceptance into the Church by signing the Book of Enrolment. This Book is then taken to the Rite of Election next Saturday at the Cathedral (12.30pm—all welcome) and is presented to the Bishop. At this rite, upon the testimony of sponsors and catechists and the catechumens' affirmation of their intention to join the Church, the Church makes its "election" of these catechumens to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. Now the catechumens are called "the elect". They now begin a Period of Purification and Enlightenment — the final, intense preparation for the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation. There are two children from OLHC who will be entering the RCIA program next week.

Palms please return any palms you received last year on Palm Sunday so that they can be prepared for Ash Wednesday. There will be a basket in the St Columba's church foyer next weekend for you to place them in. There will also be a basket in the OLHC foyer in which to deposit last year's palms ready for the school ceremony on Shrove Tuesday

This Mass is a celebration of the whole Church of the Diocese of Ballarat. We celebrate the unity and ministry of the ordained priests in the midst of the entire priestly people of God of the Diocese. This Mass also has special significance for those who will use the blessed oils in 2019 – the sick, those to be baptised and confirmed. All members of the diocese are invited to participate in this celebration which truly expresses the unity of the Diocesan Church.
