26th March 2017, 4th Sunday of Lent (Year A)

Focus on the Scripture

Humans see and judge by appearances, but God looks into the heart, and there finds the real person. God's standards are not superficial, as are so many of the standards of the world. It is not age, beauty or physical strength that is important; it is not social position or religious role that is preferred. God chooses whom God chooses. God saw in David, the insignificant shepherd, the potential for being the chief shepherd of his people. The man who was born blind became the one through whom others would see the mighty works of God. Yet, neither young David nor the man in the gospel made the initial step; each simply responded with openness to God's choice of him.

By what criteria do we judge others? Do we consider some people too insignificant for greatness? Are we overly concerned with status? Do we categorise people according to the disease or physical limitation that they must endure? Do we sometimes blame them for their disability? Do our eyes perceive life in accord with the standards of a materialistic, body-orientated, pleasure-seeking society? Or do we look into the other's heart, as God does?

As with the other scrutiny Sundays, catechumens and long-standing members alike are exhorted to make a choice. Jesus is the one who gives sight to blind eyes and religious insight to those open to receive it. However, there is a price to pay. Will it be the standards of the world, or the power of God in Jesus Christ?

These Scrutinies, which will be observed this weekend and the next, provide a period of self-searching and repentance for the Elect in their faith journey. Most importantly, it offers them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life. As a faith filled community and witnesses to Christ, we are also encouraged to join in the Scrutinies. This Rite recognises that we are all in need of conversion throughout our lives, so we can join with Angela and Eva in scrutinizing our lives and pray for the grace to overcome the power of sin that infects our hearts. As a community we continue to pray that Angela and Eva, as well as our Candidates, Natasha Bryan and Emily Wallis, may continue to grow in faith as they journey to fullness of faith in the Eucharist.

Baptisms - Welcome into our Faith Community this weekend, Harvey Rodoni, son of Bridget & Kristian Rodoni and Jack and Harry Meerbach, sons of Wendy & Stuart Meerbach who will receive the Sacrament of Baptism on Sunday morning. ### Caritas Australia theme this Lenten season is "Love your neighbour"

With limited support in Vietnam for the education and social inclusion of children with disabilities, young Nguyet lived an isolated life. Then through her community, her family became involved with a Caritas-Australia supported program offering her education, creative outlets and community interaction. Now Nguyet's mother has great hope for her future. You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion
