

MARY MACKILLOP BUS TOUR

Join Fr John Corrigan on an 11 Day Footsteps of Mary MacKillop pilgrimage from Melbourne to Adelaide. The trip includes a 2 night stay in Penola, an Opening Mass with Archbishop Comensoli, and visits to Hamilton, Portland, Victor Harbour, and Seven Hills winery. The journey departs Tuesday 3rd August 2021 and bookings are now open, although space will be limited. Visit www.harvestjourneys.com or phone 1800 819 156 (toll free).

PORT FAIRY BUILDING WORKS

- The steel poles at the north-east entrance to the church property have been assessed as unsafe, and will be removed shortly.
- The gas bottle near the south-west door of the church will be returned.
- Decisions need to be made about the outstanding interior work in the sanctuary, and exterior works to beautify the church grounds.

Infant Jesus Sanctuary Lamp

This week's candle is dedicated to Liza Pharoah who died recently. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace.

Pentecost

Saturday 22nd and Sunday 23rd May, 2021

FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL Ps 103(104):1,24,29-31,34

R/. Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,

How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches.

R/. Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth.

R/. Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord.

R/. Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

1 Cor 12:3-7,12-13

In the one Spirit we were all baptised

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

SEQUENCE

Come, Holy Spirit, from heaven shine forth with your glorious light.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

Come, Father of the poor, come, generous Spirit, come, light of our hearts.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

Come from the four winds,
O Spirit, come breath of God;
disperse the shadows over us,
renew and strengthen your people.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

Most kindly warming light!
Enter the inmost depths of our hearts,
for we are faithful to you.
Without your presence we have nothing worthy, nothing pure.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

You are only comforter, Peace of the soul.
In the heat you shade us;
in our labour you refresh us,
and in trouble you are our strength.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

On all who put their trust in you
and receive you in faith,
shower all your gifts.
Grant that they may grow in you and persevere to the end.
Give them lasting joy!
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

John 15:26-27,16:12-15

The Spirit of truth will lead you to the complete truth

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness. And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.

‘I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.’

CORRESPONDING WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

Fr Francis Fernandez

If we want to grow in fidelity to the constant motions and inspirations of the Holy Spirit in our soul, we can fix our attention on three fundamental points: docility, life of prayer and union with the Cross.

First of all docility, because it is the Holy Spirit who, through his inspirations, gives a supernatural tone to our thoughts, desires and actions. It is He who leads us to be receptive to Christ's teaching and to assimilate it in a profound way. It is He who gives us the light by which we perceive our personal calling and the strength to carry out all that God expects of us.

The Paraclete never ceases to act in our soul. Not a single aspiration do we say that is not inspired by the Holy Spirit, as St Paul tells us in the second reading of today's Mass (1 Cor 12:3). He is present and moves us in prayer, as we read the Gospel, when we discover new light through a piece of advice we have received, as we ponder upon a truth of faith which already perhaps we have often considered. We realise that this clarity does not depend upon our will. It does not come from us, but from God. It is the Holy Spirit who leads us gently to the Sacrament of Penance to confess our sins, to raise our heart to God at an unexpected moment, to carry out some particular work. It is He who suggests to us to make some small sacrifice, or finds for us the right words to inspire someone to be better.

In the second place, a life of prayer, because the giving of one's self, the obedience and meekness of a Christian, are born of love and lead to love. And love leads to a personal relationship, to conversation and friendship. Christian life requires a constant dialogue with God, One in three Persons, and it is to this intimacy that the Holy Spirit leads us. Let us acquire the habit of conversation with the Holy Spirit, who is the one who will make us holy. Let us trust in him and ask his help and feel his closeness to us. In this way our poor heart will grow: we will have a greater desire to love God and to love all creatures for God's sake. (St J. Escrivá, Christ Is Passing By.)

And finally, union with the Cross, because in the life of Christ, the Resurrection and Pentecost were preceded by Calvary. This is the order that must be followed in the life of any Christian ... The Holy Spirit comes to us as a result of the Cross – as a result of our total abandonment to the will of God, of seeking only His glory and of renouncing ourselves completely.

If we want to have a deeper friendship with the Holy Spirit, nothing is so effective as a close friendship with Mary. She it was who seconded, as no other creature ever did, the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. The Apostles, before the day of Pentecost, with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary, the Mother of Jesus. (Acts 1:14)

Recent deaths: Philip Barclay, Bill Daffy, Maris Kalka, Liza Pharaoh.
