BRIGIDINE SISTERS CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

The first group of Brigidine Sisters arrived to teach in Horsham in 1920.

In 2020, the committee had planned to commemorate the Centenary of the Brigidine Sisters and of Brigidine Education in Horsham, however plans were shelved as the global pandemic closed down any hope of holding celebrations at that time.

Two years on, we are now planning to proceed with a weekend of celebrations to mark the milestone.

On the weekend of 16 and 17 July 2022, you are invited to participant in tours of the three schools - Ss Michael & John's Primary School, Our Lady Help of Christians Murtoa, and St Brigid's College; celebratory Masses at Murtoa and Horsham; and social gatherings in the Parish Centre. There will also be a presentation of the commemorative quilt which will hang in the Parish Office, and the launch of a book recognising the 100 years of Brigidine Sisters in Horsham.

Please see attached flyer for registration details.

Knights of the Southern Cross Annual Golf Weekend,
resuming after Covid interruptions.

5pm Mass Sunday 12th June 2022

The Horsham Parish Catering team are needing more volunteers. There are a few different roles they are hoping you can help with:

Lead Person- someone who will contact people to provide food and organise support persons to help on the day.

Food Providers- people who can be contacted to make a cake/slice or rounds of sandwiches to donate.

Support Persons- people who can be called upon to help set up on the day, make tea and coffee and clean up at the end.

If you are able to assist in any of these three ministries please contact Betty Heinrich (including via Parish Office if helpful) . Thank you.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
 The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
 before the oldest of his works.
 From everlasting I was firmly set,
 from the beginning, before earth came into being.
 The deep was not, when I was born,
 there were no springs to gush with water.
 Before the mountains were settled,
 before the hills, I came to birth;
 before he made the earth, the countryside,
 or the first grains of the world's dust.
 When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
 when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
 when he thickened the clouds above,
 when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
 when he assigned the sea its boundaries
 - and the waters will not invade the shore -
 when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
 I was by his side, a master craftsman,
 delighting him day after day,
 ever at play in his presence,
 at play everywhere in his world,
 delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 8:4-9

R. O Lord, our God,
 how wonderful your name in all the earth!
 When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
 the moon and the stars which you arranged,
 what is man that you should keep him in mind,
 mortal man that you care for him?
 Yet you have made him little less than a god;
 with glory and honour you crowned him,
 gave him power over the works of your hand,
 put all things under his feet.
 All of them, sheep and cattle,
 yes, even the savage beasts,

birds of the air, and fish
 that make their way through the waters.

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation: Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
 to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
 Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 16:12-15.

Jesus said to his disciples:
 'I still have many things to say to you
 but they would be too much for you now.
 But when the Spirit of truth comes
 he will lead you to the complete truth,
 since he will not be speaking as from himself
 but will say only what he has learnt;
 and he will tell you of the things to come.
 He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.
 Everything the Father has is mine;
 that is why I said:
 All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

LOYOLA PRESS REFLECTION

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.
