

Reflection on the Gospel-20th Sunday in Ordinary Time C
(Luke 12:49-53)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

There is a sense of urgency in today's gospel. Jesus feels constrained or under stress until the "fire" he has come to cast on the earth is kindled and the baptism of fire that John the Baptist foreshadowed in 3:16 takes effect. Elsewhere in Luke's writing, fire is associated with judgement (3:9, 17; 9:17; 17:29), and with the presence of the Holy Spirit (3:16), especially in the Lukan story of Pentecost (Acts 2:3) where "tongues as of fire" appear and rest on all those assembled in the upper room. Fire is a sign of the end times when the Spirit of prophecy descends on all God's people (Acts 2:18-19). Those who have experienced the effect of the all too frequent bush fires in Australia or the wild fires of California can appreciate the power of this image. Climate change is undoubtedly increasing the risk of destructive fires. Drier conditions wither plant life that then becomes fuel for the fires. Fire can take all before it. It can also bring the most astonishing new life in its wake.

Linked with the image of fire is that of water: Jesus has a "baptism with which to be baptized". Once more, a sense of urgency is expressed as the power of water is evoked. Like fire, water has power to destroy and power to save. Fire and water become metaphors for the hard won gospel path to peace. Jesus seems to be contradicting so much of what he has stood for to this point. At his birth, he is presented as the bringer of peace (Luke 1:79 and 2:14). He tells the hospitable woman of 7:50 and the faith-filled woman of 8:48 to "go in peace". He instructs his disciples to bring peace to the families they visit (10:5-6). He refuses to be a divider (12:13-14). And now he declares that he has come not to bring peace but division. His hearers can expect members of families to be divided one against another. How can this be?

The Lukan Jesus is almost certainly describing the status quo rather than prescribing what ought to prevail. In other words, by the time Luke is writing, it is clear that some have accepted the gospel way of peace and justice and compassion and others within the same families have not. Acceptance of the gospel and of Jesus as the Christ or Messiah would have involved a monumental shift for Jews on the one hand and for adherents of the diverse philosophies or faiths of the Roman world on the other. Today's families of mixed faith might be able to get inside this experience and to understand the suffering involved when a family member makes a life choice that other members of the family find hard to accept. This is not an easy text to understand or even to accept. We need to struggle with its ambiguity.

WELCOME TO BISHOP PAUL!

It is with great pleasure that our parish extends a warm welcome to Bishop Paul Bird who is celebrating our parish masses this weekend! Please join in a cuppa after the 6.00pm Vigil Mass at St. Alipius or after the 10.30am Sunday Mass at Ss Peter & Paul's and have a chat with Bishop Paul.

LETTERS FOR PETER

Parishioners are invited to express their "goodbye" to Fr Peter Sherman by dropping off any letters or cards to the parish office by Tuesday 20th August. Please use the mail-slot next to the front door if outside of office hours. They will be collated and given to Peter along with a formal acknowledgement from the parish.

PLENARY COUNCIL PARISH FACILITATORS

Many thanks to John Clonan, Kristen Murray, Eileen Rice, Damien McCartin and Bernadette Tolan who have expressed an interest in training to be discussion facilitators for the Listening and Discernment encounters associated with the six themes for our parish. These group encounters will be held later in the year. Please consider your own thoughts — the themes can be found on the church noticeboards and on the website: www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

LEADERSHIP FOR MISSION PROGRAM - For Women aged 25 - 35

Leadership for Mission is a joint initiative of the Council for Australian Catholic Women, the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, Catholic Mission and the Australian Catholic University. It is designed by and for women who are inspired by the Gospel vision of justice, freedom and the dignity of the human person. Across a series of educational and formative encounters, this unique program brings the leadership experiences of women within the Church together in the context of an academic and collaborative learning environment. Applications close October 14. More details at <https://www.opw.catholic.org.au/projects/leadership-for-mission>
