

NOW MORE THAN EVER

NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 2024 27 MAY – 3 JUNE #NRW2024 RECONCILIATION.ORG.AU

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER 2024 NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK

The National Reconciliation Week theme for 2024, “Now More Than Ever”, is a reminder to all of us that no matter what, the fight for justice and the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people will — and must — continue.

We have a long way to go but there is no turning back. For Indigenous Australians, the acid test of reconciliation will be improved health, better housing, education and employment.

Reconciliation is the way of the future, our shared future in which Australia is united as one people ‘with many rich cultures and a commitment to justice and equity.’

Dr Lowitja O’Donoghue AC CBE DSG

Acknowledgement of Country

This National Reconciliation Week we acknowledge the many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander nations across Australia, who have had continued connection to their Country since time immemorial. We especially remember 27 May and 3 June, two dates that are important to all Australians. The first is the anniversary of the 1967 referendum when Australians voted overwhelmingly for a change in the constitution and the second is Mabo Day which commemorates Mer Island man Eddie Koiki Mabo and his successful efforts to overturn the legal fiction of terra nullius, or ‘land belonging to no-one’. We pay tribute to the Elders who have come before and used their voice for change for a better future for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. We honour today’s Elders who continue to advocate for Reconciliation through Voice, Treaty and Truth-telling.

Young Dark Emu: A Truer History by Bruce Pascoe

Teacher notes

Young Dark Emu: A Truer History is a children's version of Bruce Pascoe's Dark Emu – a book that explains that Australian Aboriginal people at the time of British colonisation were not only hunter-gatherers, but also people who made agricultural use of their land.

Secondary – books

Us Mob Walawurru by David Spillman and Lisa Wilyuka

Magabala Books – teacher notes

Copyright Agency – teacher notes

Us Mob Walawurru is set on a cattle farm in 1960s Central Australia and centres on Ruby as she seeks to understand why two cultures are at odds with each other. The more she learns, the harder the journey becomes as she is drawn back to country to uncover the secrets of her past.

Dark Emu – Black Seeds: agriculture or accident by Bruce Pascoe

Teacher notes

Also supported by Dark Emu in the Classroom: Teacher Resources for High School Geography Year 9–10

Dark Emu argues for a reconsideration of the 'hunter-gatherer' tag for pre-colonial Aboriginal Australians and attempts to rebut the colonial myths that have worked to justify dispossession.
